Info

My name is Delia Perez and I'm currently a graphic design student at Southeastern Louisiana University. I have a strong studio art background and experience in nearly every medium but settled on graphic design as a career choice two years ago.

My designs tend to rely primarily on hand drawn illustrations and typography. My background and comfortability in creating things by hand sets me apart from most graphic designers in a quickly developing, electronically based industry.

Job Experience

Darling Press & Stationers June - July 2014

Letterpress Printer and Design Intern

Designing wedding invitations and business cards as well as working the press for printing.

PJ's Coffee August 2012 - Present

Barista / Display Board Designer

Brewing coffee and baking pastries as a local barista and regularly hand lettering the chalkboard displays and menu boards.

Louisiana Children's Center August 2011 - 2012

Playologist / Craft Room Manager

In charge of creating crafts and art lessons for children aged 0 - 8 for every day of the week.
